WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Depart ment Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., March 28, 1876-10:30 a. m.to SE winds, increasing to gales on the coast, falling barometer and stationary or slight rise of temperature.

FATAL ACCIDENT.-A brief mention was made in the Gazette, yesterday, of the death of two colored men who fell in a well at the County Court House just as the Gazette was going to press The particulars of the acci dent are as tollows: Samuel Davis. James Thompson, George Lee and E. B. Kimball, the three former colored, were cleaning out the well at the corner of Columbus and Princess streets. They had removed the pump and had placed old plank across the mouth of the well, on which they stood white hauling up the buckets of water, preparatory to cleansing the bottom of the well. The plank proved to be rotten, and gave way, and they all fell in, but Kimball and Lee saved themselves by clutchthe well, and were not seriously hurt, though the former was badly cut on the neck and side of his face. Davis and Thompson fell to the bottom, head foremost, and were found with J. W. Nalls, was postponed. their heads beneath the two feet of water that remained in the well, both dead, Thompson's neck having been broken in his descent. Davis was not killed instantly as he was hear't to call for help ones or twice. A large crowd soon collected and a call was made for volunteers to this esteemed brother. From an intimate acdescend and rescue the victims or recover their quaintance with Mr. Webb, and in almost bodies, but although a number of colored mon | daily companionship during the last six months were standing by not one of them responded, though the unfortunates belonged to their own one negro would not go to the assistance of another, descended the well immediately, but, as already stated, found both the m:n dead. He fastened a rope to their bodies and they were both hauled up, and presented a dreadful spectacle as they reached the surface. Thomp son leaves a wife and four children, and is said to have been an hosest, hard working man. Davis may be remembered as a lame mulatto, who had at one time a wife who played the violin at colored parties about town, and was the owner of a performing dog which danced and smoked a pipe. She, however, left him white woman near West End. The bodies of the unfortunate men were removed to their

HABEAS CORPUS CASE-DECISION OF JUDGE SANGSTER -Upon the petition of F ank Thomas, of Baltimore, who had been confined in jail ever since the 22! of February, charged with an attempt to commit a felony in habeas corpus ad subjiciendum, and Thomas from 10 to 40 cents per bunch. was brought before him under the writ, Mr. Edmun i Burke appearing for the prisoner and John M. Upon the hearing of the case yes erday, Judge Sangster held that the statute conferred power upon the court to inquire into the evi-dence upon which the defendant was commit ted, and if the evidence showed that no of fence had been committed it was the duty of the court to discharge him. These conclusions were deducible from the principles laid down in the case of ex parte Swartront and Holl man, decided by Chief Justice Marshal, of the Supreme Court of the United States, in which case the defendants were committed to jail for treason in being engaged in the plans of Aaron Burr to establish a western empire; and inasmuch as the evidence in the present case only snowed a slight suspicion of guilt the defendant was discharged from custody upon his own recognizance to appear at the April term of the Corporation Court.

SHAVER WEDDING .- A large number of the friends of Mr. Leopold Gentzberger and wife gave them a surprise party at their residence last night in commemoration of their silver wedding. Many beautiful and costly silver presents were made to the happy couple, among which may be mentioned a handsome silver service fr m their son Mr. Myer Gentz berger, and a very beautifu! wreath from Rev. A. A. Bonnheim. An elequent and appropriate congratulatory address was delivered by the latt r gentleman on the part of the guests, during which he made a beautiful allusion to the enlivation of faith, hope and charity in the marital relation. The guests then partook of a spleudid banquet, which had been provided by the lady portion of the visitors. A toast to the bride and groom and various other toasts were drunk, including a comical one by Mr. Joseph Brager to "Suson." which created much merriment. Prof. Dattler's Alexandria Band was in attendance, and after the banquet the guests proceeded to the parlors, where dancing was kept up till an early hour this morning. Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gen zberger from abroad were present, and much pleasure was experienced by all.

"We have been favored with a visit from in the same household of domestic peace and love, we have learned to respect and admire race, and Mr. L Morgan Davis finding that him as a genuine Wesleyan Methodist and a preacher of great ability. His qualities of mind and heart eminently fit him for the work to which he has consecrated his life. Our friends in Alexandria will not find in him anything of the partisan. He knows no North or South in the great mission of Methodism. A lover of good men, a sound theologian, a model of gravity, sincerity and cheerfulness, he won all hearts here, and we doubt not will receive a warm welcome in the Old Dominion.

FISH REPORT. - Affairs at Fishtown were brisker this morning than they have been besome time since, and he had been living with a fore, this seas in, and for the first time the supply of fish exceeded the retail demand. About the unfortunate men were removed to their homes at once. Mayor Kamper, in the absence of the Superintendent of Police, had the well covered over and fenced in as a dangerous to $22 per thousand, and the bunch fish at changed. Three cyprians, for disorderly conduct, were fined and discharged.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of a youth, for disturbing worship at Christ Church, but the complaint was withdrawn on payment

Six lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

GONG FISHING .- On Saturday last the card of a colored man named J. M. Marshall appeared in the Gazette, proposing to "interpret any dreams and beat anything catching fish since our Saviour lett us." He afterwards went to Mr. O. G. Henderson, who owns a fishing shore, and proposed to work for him without pay unless he succeeded in making ex traordinary hauls of fish. Mr. Henderson be-ing in want of hands has sent him down to join the command of Capt. Basil Warren. in order that the may have full scope for his fi-h catching powers.

THE ST. ASAPH STREET TRACK .- The time for which the City Council allowed the A & W. Railroad Company to keep their track on St. Asaph street, expires to night. Application was made at the last meeting of Council for an extension of time, and the petition was granted by the Board of Aldermen, but post poned in the Common Council. Should no action be taken to-night, by Council, it is reported that the Mayor will, in accordance with the previous order, proceed to-morrow to have the track torn up.

FROM WASHINGTON.

CONGRESS.

SENATE. WASHINGTON. D. C., March 28, 1876.-The Senate after the usual morning memorials took up the bill extending the powers of the United States Courts so as to allow such courts to enforce the payment of the interest on bonds of n-unicipalities by appointing officers to collect taxes in municipal corporations.

The bill was discussed at length by Mr. Frelingbysen, Ingalls, Logan and others.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

In the House of Representatives the speaker laid before the House a communication from the Sargeaut-at-Arms setting forth that a warrint had been presented to him directing the Marshal of the District of Columbia to take him before the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to answer an indictment, and that he had refused to deliver up Kubourne with out the order of the speaker.

Mr. Glover introduced a resolution directing the Sargeaut at-Arms to refuse to deliver up Mr. Kilbourne on the warrant of the Supreme Court, and to return to said writ that Mr. K. is held under the authority of the House for contempt and can not be delivered up until he is purged of the said contempt. Mr. J. D. New, of Ind., supported this resolution in a lengthy speech, and the subject was discussed at length and the resolution agreed to.

THE RETROCESSION CASE The case of Phillips vs. Payne, involving the constitutionality of the act retroceding Alexandria to the District of Columbia, was postponed in the Supreme Court of the United States to day until to-morrow.
